Men like Brown voice convincing arguments on the fast moving changes in rural and small-town Texas. His comment on the obsolescence of computers at A & M was really a clincher. Just a few weeks ago, he said, a computer that could do about 28,000 division problems a second was pushed aside for one that can do 75,000.

We're not sure that will modernize communities, but it does prove that things move pretty fast these days.

95% Votes Favor Continuing Quota

Voting in nine Milam communities in cotton and peanut referendums Tuesday favored marketing quotas by 95 per cent margins.

Annual voting in the cotton referendum went 313 to 16 for continuing marketing quotas, ASCS officials told The Herald Wednesday. In the peanut referendum, 52 voted for continuation of quotas and two against them. The vote decided peanut crop controls for the next three years.

Cotton voting considers the marketing question once a year.

Officials considered the vote average though it was small in both referendums. About 1400 cotton allotments and 150 peanut crop allotments have been made in Milam County.

Cattle On Roads Bring Warnings From Patrolmen

Local Highway Patrolmen are warning livestock owners to keep their livestock off the state and Federal highways. There have been a number of accidents involving livestock in the past few months.

Only minor injuries have resulted from the accidents with the cattle but officials warn that serious accidents could result.

Officers are to file on those owners who allow their cattle to roam at large on the highways according to a memorandum from the State Department of Public Safety.

The livestock can also be picked up and turned over to county officials for impounding.

The accidents have been most frequent in the south-east part of the county.

Agencies Plan Open House For New Quarters

Cameron and Milam residents are invited to visit the completely remodeled offices of Milam Agriculture, Stabilization and Conservation and Farmers Home Administration Friday.

In the new location about a week ago the ASCS and FHA offices are housed in the August Horstmann Bldg., corner of Houston and Second.

The public is invited to visit the bright, modern quarters housing the two agencies from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Alva Sanders, ASCS manager, and Henry Ivey, FHA manager. Refreshments will be served.

ASCS quarters take up about three-fourths of the building, completely rebricked outside. Interior decoration includes a basic white color scheme for floor, filing equipment and ceiling. An intercom system serves the main lobby, large office area and three smaller offices.

FHA offices are behind the ASCS quarters with main entrance on the West Second St. side. Offices and waiting room are done in light green.

Remodeling began about two months ago on the building, formerly occupied by an auto store. Year-round heating and air conditioning equipment was installed along with new floors, interior ceiling, light fixtures and metal entrance marquis.

Elm Creek Farm Milk Production, Herd Increasing

Milk production has more than doubled at Elm Creek Farm since the first day of operation March 23. One day early this week milk production was totaled at 6300 pounds.

Milking began in March as construction continued on the farm's milk parlor, calf barns, bull barn and storage equipment. More than 100 registered Jerseys were transported by truck from Florida to Cameron to start the milking operation here.

Ultra-modern equipment and facilities were seen at a June open house, attended by about 600 area residents and visitors from across Texas.

Since opening, 100 calves have been born, according to Elm Creek records.

The herd is now composed of 256 Jerseys and 196 Holsteins, practically all of which are registered stock.

Recent improvements include additional fencing around the dairy, a special "walk-in" silage feed-

Forsees Small - Town Industry

Expert Urges Enthusiasm

"The pattern of the future is industrialization of small towns," rural sociologist Reagan Brown, of the Texas Extension System, told a Cameron Chamber audience Tuesday night.

Brown said that planning for the future should consider four things wanted by people:

ONE - Recognition

TWO - Response

THREE - Security

FOUR - New Experience

Illustrating his development talk with slides, Brown defined in humorous fashion a basic reason why "600 little Texas towns are dying: 'They sit, spit, whittle and get' while the communities 'go to pot.'"

Brown emphasized enthusiasm as a prime factor in community development. He said that 149 towns in Texas are operating industrial foundations, "trying to build income and raise horizons."

"You live in one of the great sections of the state," he continued.

Brown cited 900 communities which are participating in organized movements to improve themselves. Three hundred are competing in annual Texas community improvement competition sponsored by Texas electric utilities and directed by the Extension System, College Station.

CHALLENGE OF CHOICE

The rural sociologist, a native of Henderson County and former Kaufman County agent, said the communities must accept "the challenge of choice."

Towns are close to cities, most of them less than an hour's drive, he said. "Your real competition is not Caldwell or Rockdale, but the large cities."

He urged the need for community self-improvement and showed slides of outstanding rural communities where local leadership established community centers, water systems and other general needs.

"Sometimes we need help from the government," but "we can't depend on government to clean up a town," he said that large slum improvement projects in cities of years ago solved slum projects only to have more develop elsewhere in the cities.

He cited the need to retrain people off of the farm, noting that by 1975 only five per cent of the people without high school education will be able to work.

NEW SKILLS NEEDED

"There must be new skills taught in the schools to meet the technical needs of the future," he said. "There are 14,000 new people every day."

He said a computer at Texas A & M which could do 28,000 division problems a second is now obsolete and replaced by a machine that can do 75,000 per second.

He emphasized that the pattern of the future is for industrialization of small towns whose property owners, now part-time farmers, provide a stable economy.

He was introduced by County Agent J. D. Moore, master of ceremonies, was Charles Gipeston, chairman of the public relations committee, host for the Chamber booster club meeting.

Several committee reports were given prior to Brown's talk at Methodist Fellowship Hall. About 30 Chamber members attended.

Chamber President E. O. Schuler, Jr., reported that he hoped an Industrial Foundation could be organized before his term of office ended next spring. Work on new constitutions both for the Chamber and a separate industrial organization is about complete.

Pythians To Hear Dr. Ormos Shaw

Dr. Ormos O. Shaw, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Texas, will make an official visit to Milam Lodge No. 123 Monday at 7:30 p. m. All members are urged to be present to hear this speaker.

Milam Lodge is continuing their drive for the Christmas Cheer Fund for the Pythian Home. Over four hundred dollars has been contributed so far this month.

This fund is used to provide Christmas and birthday gifts and other incidental expenses for the children of the home throughout the year. Any member or friend that wishes to contribute to this worthwhile fund may do so by contacting Allen Dodson, secretary of the lodge.

West Texas' Kerbel

Grid Banquet Mon. Night

Tickets for the 1962 football banquet must be purchased by Friday according to coaching officials. Speaker for the event 7 p. m. Monday at the Methodist Fellowship Hall will be West Texas' head coach, Joe Kerbel.

Kerbel is a humorous speaker who guided his West Texas State team to an 8-2 record this season and a spot in the Sun Bowl December 29. He is in his third year at West Texas.

Before going to West Texas he was assistant coach in charge of offense at Texas Tech. Earlier he was a highly successful coach at Cleveland, Okla., Breckenridge and Amarillo. He won two state championships at Breckenridge.

Both Coach John Roberts and

Coach Carl Everett played ball under Kerbel. Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma said this about Kerbel: "High School players coached by Joe Kerbel come to us better prepared for college ball than anyone we get."

This year he has two of the outstanding players in the nation in Jerry Logan, who was fourth-round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts, and the leading scorer in the nation with 125 points. Pistol Pete Pedro was one of the leading rushers in the nation.

The Quarterback Club Trophy will be presented to the player judged tops in citizenship, athletics and scholarship by the players, coaches, school administrators and the committee of Booster Club members.

Tickets have been reduced from $2 to $1.50 this year. Officials stressed that no tickets will be sold at the door.

Everyone is urged to come out and support the football team at this banquet.

EXCHANGE CLUB GIVES AWARD AT '62 DINNER

A young man used to winning grid honors has stepped a notch higher in a rewarding athletic career.

Rugged Ernest Bayer, 19, has received Fort Worth Exchange Club's 1962 award as the outstanding freshman football player at Texas Christian University.

Presentation came at the TCU football banquet November 23.

Young Ernie thus added another trophy to an imposing collection that started when he lettered in Yoe High School in 1953.

He entered TCU this fall on a football scholarship. Soon after, he began to gain notice as a TCU Wog fullback.

His award read "The Exchange Club of Fort Worth, Annual Award 1962. Outstanding TCU Wog Football Player, Ernest Bayer."

Noemen grid fans will remember Bayer's powerhouse running plays that gobbled up 703 yards in 156 carries his senior year.

His performance won him the 1961 Cameron Quarterback Club trophy for citizenship, athletics and scholarship. He also lettered four years at VHS and captained the team in his senior year.

Other Honors: Named to the 1959 Cameron Year-End Team by the sports department of the Waco News-Tribune.

Named to Sports publicist Dub King's "Top Texas" Central Texas football players in 1961.

Named to the 1961 all-district offensive team as a fullback and defensive team as linebacker.

Benefit Film Set For Tuesday Night

Cameron Barracks 143 of World War I veterans will show a benefit film of the Sixth Marine Division in World War II combat 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Yoe High School Auditorium.

Proceeds will go toward the Cameron Library fund and hospital beds for loans to people needing them in the home.

Henry Dreyer, chairman of the program, said that advance ticket sales have been excellent and thanked Cameron people for their fine response.

World War I veterans will be admitted free of charge.

Information On '63 Feed Grain Program Told

COLLEGE STATION The voluntary feed grain program for 1963 will generally follow provisions for the 1961 and 1962 crops by giving feed grain producers an opportunity to reduce acreages and receive payments, the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee has announced. The program again will apply to corn, grain sorghum and barley.

Participating farmers will receive diversion payments for shifting acreage from production to a conservation use and price - support payments on the normal production of the 1963 feed grain acreage. They will also be eligible for price support loans and purchase agreements for the 1963 actual feed grain production. Rates for diversion are somewhat smaller than in previous years, but the decrease will be more than offset for most farmers by the price - support payments, the Committee said.

A major change was listed. To be eligible for payments or price support on any of the three grains included, the farmer must divert the total acreage for which he signs up, the Committee explained.

Farmers may take part in the program by reducing the total of their 1963 feed grain acreage (corn grain sorghum and barley) by at least 20 per cent. The maximum diversion is the higher of 40 per cent of the base acreage or 25 acres, provided this is not more than the base acreage. The acreage of the three crops (1959 - 60 acreage, as adjusted) will be combined into a single feed grain base for the farm, and the farmer may choose to divert one or more of the feed grains, with the diversion payment being made at the per - acre rate applicable to the grain or grains diverted.

Farmers who have planted their 1963 barley crop will be able to take part in the 1963 program by reducing their total feed grain acreage by at least 20 per cent.

Price support to participating farmers will be available partly through loans and purchase agreements and partly through price - support payments. Loans and agreements will reflect a national average price of $1.02 per bushel on corn; $1.62 per cwt. on grain sorghum and 79 cents per bushel on barley. In addition, price - support payments will be made on the normal production of the 1963 feed grain acreage at the rate of 19c per bushel on corn, 29 cents per cwt. on grain sorghum and 14 cents per bushel of barley.

Participating farmers can put all of their 1963 - crop corn, grain sorghum and barley under price - support loans and purchase agreements. This is a change, noted the Committee, from earlier programs, which limited support to the normal production of the 1962 crop.

Acres taken out of feed grains may be planted to guar, sesame, safflower, sunflower and castor beans, but at a lower diversion rate - with no payment on acres planted to safflower. Malting barley in 1963 will be treated like all other barley, the Committee said.

Farmers may receive part of their acreage diversion payments at the time they sign up to participate in the program. The sign up period will be early next year, and will be announced later, the Committee said.

Since oats and rye are not included in the program, no payment is provided and no reduction in acreage is required for price - support eligibility. As in 1962, the national average support for these two crops will be 62 cents per bushel for oats and $1.02 for rye.

Milam ASCS Report

December 14 is the last day for signing up under the 1963 wheat stabilization program for farms in the winter wheat area, Alva E. Sanders, office manager of the Milam County Agriculture, Stabilization and Conservation Service, has announced.

This means that only a few days remain in which growers may file applications to take part in the 1963 wheat stabilization program, Sanders said.

Farmers who participate in the 1963 program will be eligible to receive special payments for voluntarily diverting a part of their allotment or base acreage from the production of wheat and devoting that acreage to a conservation use, and they will also qualify for extra price support payments.

Under this voluntary wheat reduction program, farmers may divert from 20 to 50 percent of their wheat allotment or base acreage, with special diversion provisions for small farms. The diverted acreage must be devoted to an approved conservation use.

Growers are cautioned, however, to sign up for only the amount acreage they intend to divert from 1963 production. Failure to divert the full amount of acreage signed up would result in loss of diversion and price support payments, as well as loss of eligibility for the regular wheat price support, according to Sanders.

Home Accidents High During Winter Months

The greatest number of fatal home accidents occur during the three winter months, according to Texas Safety Association records.

"Based on these records," Lone Star Gas Company Manager C. M. Burke said today, "451 or 35 per cent of all home accident fatalities for the next 12 months will occur in December, January and February."

Lone Star is sponsoring a home safety program in Cameron for the second straight year. Co - sponsors are the Texas Safety Association and Cameron Herald.

"Fires and falls, in that order, will offer the greatest threats of live and limb during the winter months," Burke said. "We must find and remove accident hazards of this type, before our loved ones are injured or killed."

"Leading causes of fire deaths are smoking in bed, children playing with matches, faulty electric wiring, defective flues and chimneys and overheated equipment."

Children of less than five years of age and senior family members in the 65-and-older age bracket will be the most frequent victims of home accidents, with 286 or 63 per cent of the expected 451 fatalities in these age groups. A total of 169 of the 286 victims will be 65 or over and 117 will be less than five.

SOIL

To the farmer, soil is a precious mixture of mineral and organic matter, air and water on which life depends. He considers soil the medium through which he earns his living and produces food and fiber for the world, and also believes that its wise use is basic to the economy of the nation, says Lynn Pittard, soil and water conservation specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The dress had a fitted bodice which formed a point at the waist with a round scalloped neckline accented with pearls. The fitted long sleeves were accented with pearls at the wrist. Her fingertip length veil fell from a queen's crown of pearls. She carried a long bouquet of white carnations with a purple orchid in the center with ribbons draping from the carnations. Her only jewelry was a star necklace.

Station of honor was Mrs. Frank Skala Jr. of Rosebud. She wore a short blue princess style dress with a fitted bodice. The bodice and long sleeves were covered with white flower net lace fashioned the same as the bride. She carried a long corsage bouquet of white carnations.

A reception and supper combination was held at the home of the bride. The hostesses were Mrs. Willie Becker, Mrs. Lydia Shufeldt, Mrs. Louis Skala, Mrs. T. J. McVey and Mrs. Otto Meyer.

A three-tiered white cake, adorned with pink roses and silver leaves graced the table. A bridal couple rested on the top tier of the cake.

Tigers Take 27-14 Win Over Humble

Rockdale created another page in the school's history as they won quarter - final game with a 27-14 win over Humble last Friday in Huntsville.

And this week they move into the semi - finals when they meet Sinton at Seguin Friday at 8 p. m. Then the winner of this game will meet the winner of the Winters - Jacksboro game at Abilene Saturday night.

Rockdale turned blocked punts and interceptions into touchdowns as they presented a stout defense for the victory.

Rockdale built up a 21-0 lead in the third period before Humble was able to get on the score board, but then the Wildcats put two quick touchdowns to bring the score to 21-14. The Tigers scored shortly before the game ended for their total 27 points.

Two of the Tiger TD's came as a result of blocked punts and another on an interception near the Wildcats' goal line.

Rockdale received the kick off and moved to Humble's 27 and then had to punt. After Humble got off two plays, Wayne Voskamp broke through and batted the ball away as Tommy Brooks attempted to punt. Voskamp fell on the ball behind the goal line for the Tigers' first touchdown. Ronnie Menn kicked the extra point.

After a few fumbles and interceptions for both teams, Humble marched from its own 11 to the Rockdale 22 but the Tigers maintained their defense and they were forced to punt.

Menn recovered a fumble by Johnny May and Rockdale took possession on their own 20. Dickey Summers passed 52 yards to Copie Perry for the TD. The point kick was blocked.

Another blocked punt gave Rockdale its third tally when Ernie Laurence broke up the fourth down try. The Tigers took over on the Wildcat four yard line and L. B. Kubiak went into the end zone for the tally. Ronnie Swadlow took a pass for a two point conversion.

Humble made the scoreboard when they got possession of the ball on their own 47 and went all the way. The kick failed.

The Wildcats came back strong a short time later to take their second score. May passed to Ed Zuhar for two points.

Rockdale took possession of the ball on the Humble 20 after a 16 yard kick, but Summers fumbled and Zuhar grabbed the ball on the 22. May lost seven on an attempted pass and then tried a lateral, but Jimmy Killen intercepted for the Tigers and raced to the Wildcat three yard line.

Summers went through the line for the final TD of the night. The attempt for the two - point conversion was stopped short and the Tigers took to play a 27-14 lead with the right to play in the Semi-finals against Sinton.

Troy Drops Rogers Twice

Only a handful of fans witnessed the most exciting finish to any contest this year. Last Monday night with the score tied 31-31, Jackie McKinney drove from the far end and hit the basket to win the game. Only four seconds were left on the clock. It was the night for close games because only minutes earlier, the seventh grade team lost to the fifth team 14-12.

The wind was howling outside but the small number of basketball fans were very comfortable in the gym Tuesday night. Bad weather kept most of the fans away from the game. But they missed seeing the Yoemen play one of their better games of the year.

Saturday afternoon after playing Taylor for the third time in five days Coach Joe Davis told his basketball team he had just arranged to play Taylor Sunday. But the team protested until he admitted he was only kidding.

But one thing is certain. If he had scheduled a game the team would be out there ready to go.

Coach Carl Everett claims that the year his cross-country team won the state football championship that the basketball team lost quite a few games in a row. But the football had carried over as the referees carried red flags in their pockets.

A few days ago Louis Hollas was having trouble getting his four year old son Dennis to eat his food. He told him that if he didn't eat the food he wouldn't grow big and couldn't play football. But Dennis told his dad, "Joe Meyer plays football and he's little." And at 145 pounds, Meyer did play football.

Heading For 'Quiet Room?'

(Watch that last "one for the road." It may fuel your trip to the "quietest room." This dramatic presentation is a grim reminder of what is in store for some who over - celebrate the Holidays ahead. — Ed.)

They are ready for you. They expect you. You will never know about it, so I'll fill you in on the details before the starting of the Christmas holiday; the New Years holiday; of vacation; the Independence Day holiday; the Labor Day holiday.

The beginning for you will be when you stagger happily to your car. The beginning for them will be when the police radio announces the spot where you piled up your car.

You won't hear the sirens coming. The ambulance and police car will probably arrive about the same time. They will check you over and pronounce you dead. A few curious people will stop their cars and walk back to gaze at your torn and dirty remains. Some might even get sick.

A leather covered stretcher will be rolled out. Your hands will be stuffed under your belt. You will be put on the stretcher and covered with a sheet.

Law Requires Men

To Register On

18th Birthday

The Federal Law requires that young men register with the nearest draft board on their 18th birthday, or within five days thereafter. A review of the registration records at the local board office here in Milam County reveals that during the past four months, 30 young men registered late.

This figure is fifty per cent of total men who registered during those four months. August G. Kunz Chairman of Local Board No. 92 states that it is the duty of every young man to keep himself informed regarding his duties and obligation as prescribed in the Selective Service Regulations. He also announced that the board may have to establish a tougher policy regarding men who register late for the draft.

The following registrars are maintained for the convenience of young men.

Roy L. Allen in Rockdale; Norman Clement, Thorndale; Walter G. Marek, Burlington Post Office; Leo J. O'Neill, County Clerk's Office, Cameron; Floyd W. Stark, Bucholts; Lon M. Peoples and John D. Yoakum, Milano; James W. Griffin, Superintendent, Milano High School and Mrs. Filipina P. Slovack, clerk at the local board office.

Other members of the board besides Kunz are Lyngle D. Barnes Jr., co - chairman of Thorndale; Jeff A. Henderson, secretary, Ben Arnold; Lon M. Peoples, Milano and Lester E. Hirt, Rockdale.

be weighed and measured. Scars and other marks will be noted. Then to a small room with walls of white tile.

There are hoses in this room to give you a bath. Traffic victims are always bloody. They will clean you up and embalm you.

Next you will be moved to a long hall with many stretchers lined against its pale green walls. If things are dull you will have a stretcher and a crypt all to yourself. But if it's either the Christmas holiday; the New Years holiday; the Independence Day holiday or the Labor Day holiday, you may have company.

Then they will leave you here in THE QUIETEST ROOM IN TOWN.

Pretty soon they will come back and move you again. This time the white sheet is taken away and you are covered with a blanket. You will be placed behind a large glass window so someone can look at you. Your wife, your husband, your parents - someone has to identify you. Don't worry, though - you won't be able to hear their cries.

Yes, they are waiting for you - the police, the ambulance crews, the coroners at the morgue, the morticians. They are expecting you.

Remember that when you go through that stop sign; remember that when you are fatigued but want to drive another 100 miles; remember that when you drive with faulty brakes, bald tires; remember that when you are driving too fast for conditions; remember that when you toss down that last drink and climb behind the steering wheel.

Don't let this happen to you, your loved ones, your brother.

Please be safe.

USDA Studies Farm Accidents; Not Declining

COLLEGE STATION — Farm - accident fatalities are not declining in proportion to the decline in farm population, according to a report received by the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

One reason cited for the continuing high death rate in farm accidents is the increasing average age of people on farms. Another is that farms are somewhat isolated with little supervision of work and not much opportunity for an injured person to obtain first aid immediately. Also, traffic on rural highways is less controlled than on urban streets.

Accidents resulting in non - fatal injuries occur to about a third of the farm population annually, the report said. About 19 per cent of farm people are injured seriously enough in these accidents to lose time from their work, and about 3 per cent are permanently disabled each year.

Traffic accidents account for many of the serious injuries of farm people away from the farm. Accidents on the farm are often associated with farm machinery and falls are the most common cause of accidents in farm homes.

The report stated that hospitalization and medical treatment are believed to account for less than a fourth of the total cost of farm accidents. As yet, little is known about the economic loss of wages or production, which probably accounts for a considerable part of the total costs.

The information developed by USDA's Economic Research Service, points out the Safety Council, is aimed at stimulating more effective accident - prevention programs for farm people. The Council encourages farm people to make farm and home safety a part of community planning and program building.

"We can no longer take safety for granted because the ever - increasing use of machinery, electricity, chemicals and other labor saving devices and materials make training in safety a must for farm people," emphasizes the Council. "The safety record of agriculture can stand a lot of improving and it is up to those in the industry to do something about it," concludes the Council.

"GREATEST STORY"

"Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, - - -"

Thus begins the greatest story ever written. Always new, it unfolds the glorious wonders of the Prince of Peace.

As the hallowed Christmas season approaches, find opportunity to sit down with other members of your family and read again—or perchance for the first time—the record of the miracle of miracles.

Behold the splendor. Thrill to the heavenly song. With faith strengthened—or newly born—rise to walk in the "true Light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world".

Give evidence of your love and allegiance to Him by humble worship in your home, and in the House of God. Having gifts to give, give them in His Name.
